

Suzana Gartner

Interview Animal Advocate and Animal Rights Lawyer
Suzana Gartner

MEET SUZANA GARTNER, J.D., LL.M. (ADR)

Suzana Gartner, J.D., LL.M. (ADR) is an animal advocate, animal law expert, mediator, retired animal rights lawyer, vegan, cruelty-free working mom and an author who is giving a voice and hope to animals by educating families, children, groups, organizations, communities and more. She currently serves as the Executive Director of Operations and Programs at the Etobicoke Humane Society.

Suzana completed her Master of Laws degree in Alternative Dispute Resolution. Her thesis titled, 'Reducing Euthanasia in Animal Shelters,' focused on improving the situation for shelter animals using collaboration, community, and consensus. In 2014, she launched the first animal law firm and mediation practice in Canada: Gartner & Associates Animal Law and practiced animal law for several years.

Suzana is committed to give a voice to animals and advance animal rights. She has volunteered at animal shelters since childhood. She speaks publicly on animal issues and has been interviewed on national news, radio, and podcasts and has been featured in print magazines. She served as the past Chair of the Ontario Bar Association's Animal Law Section and serves on the board of advisors for Animal Justice, Canada's largest animal charity.

She continues to pursue her passion as an animal advocate and visits animal rescues and sanctuaries. In her spare time, Suzana loves to spend time with her family, which includes her husband and their two teenagers and furry babies.

ABOUT THE BOOK

A Voice for Animals: The Social Movement that Provides Dignity and Compassion for Animals

A Voice for Animals is an insightful and informative book about the deep emotional bond that humans share with animals including the connections and relationships with their beloved pets. It also sheds light on other issues affecting animals such as homeless pets in shelters and animal cruelty, including the mistreatment of companion animals, as well as other animal species in farming and food industries and the endangerment of wildlife. It empowers readers with practical tools on finding ways to get involved for positive changes as they are inspired to be a voice for animals.

The book is uplifting, and filled with hopeful messages with heartfelt animal stories that touch reader's hearts. It encourages readers to get involved and make positive changes as they are motivated to be a voice for animals. It encourages readers to get involved in animal protection and join the animal rights movement, by taking individual steps such as: adopting animals from shelters and rescues, go vegan for animals, health, and the planet, and embracing a cruelty-free lifestyle, to make a difference.

A Voice for Animals* will be released nationwide 2023 and is available for pre-order on Amazon and wherever books are sold.

DISCUSSION TOPICS

Suzana is available for interviews, expert commentary, features, Q&As and Select byline opportunities and can discuss topics including but not limited to:

- Plant-based lifestyles: What they are, the benefits, and how to make the transition
- Pet parenting following the pandemic and how to handle separation anxiety
- Pet custody and how to navigate ownership during a divorce or separation
- Pets and their legal rights: How to protect your furry family member
- Ways to help homeless companion animals in your community find loving homes
- How to become involved with animal rights and ways you can make a difference
- The pros and cons of fostering animals/volunteering and other ways to get involved
- Why you should adopt, not shop when looking for a new furry family member
- Breed discrimination in cities and why some animals are labeled "aggressive"
- The mistreatment of companion, farm, and working animals
- Cruelty-free living and how to prevent animal testing and abuse
- Benefits of going vegan, explaining what is veganish or embracing veganism as a healthy lifestyle and providing helpful tips for those interested to make the transition
- Animal advocacy tips on getting involved in animal rights and joining the movement.

CONTACT

For more information, visit:
Website: suzanagartner.com
LinkedIn: Suzana Gartner
Instagram: @suzanagartner
###